

FeasiBuild

Are You a Valuer — or an Excel Mechanic?

You charge for your expertise, your judgment, and your market knowledge. But that's not what you're spending your time on. It's time to fix that.

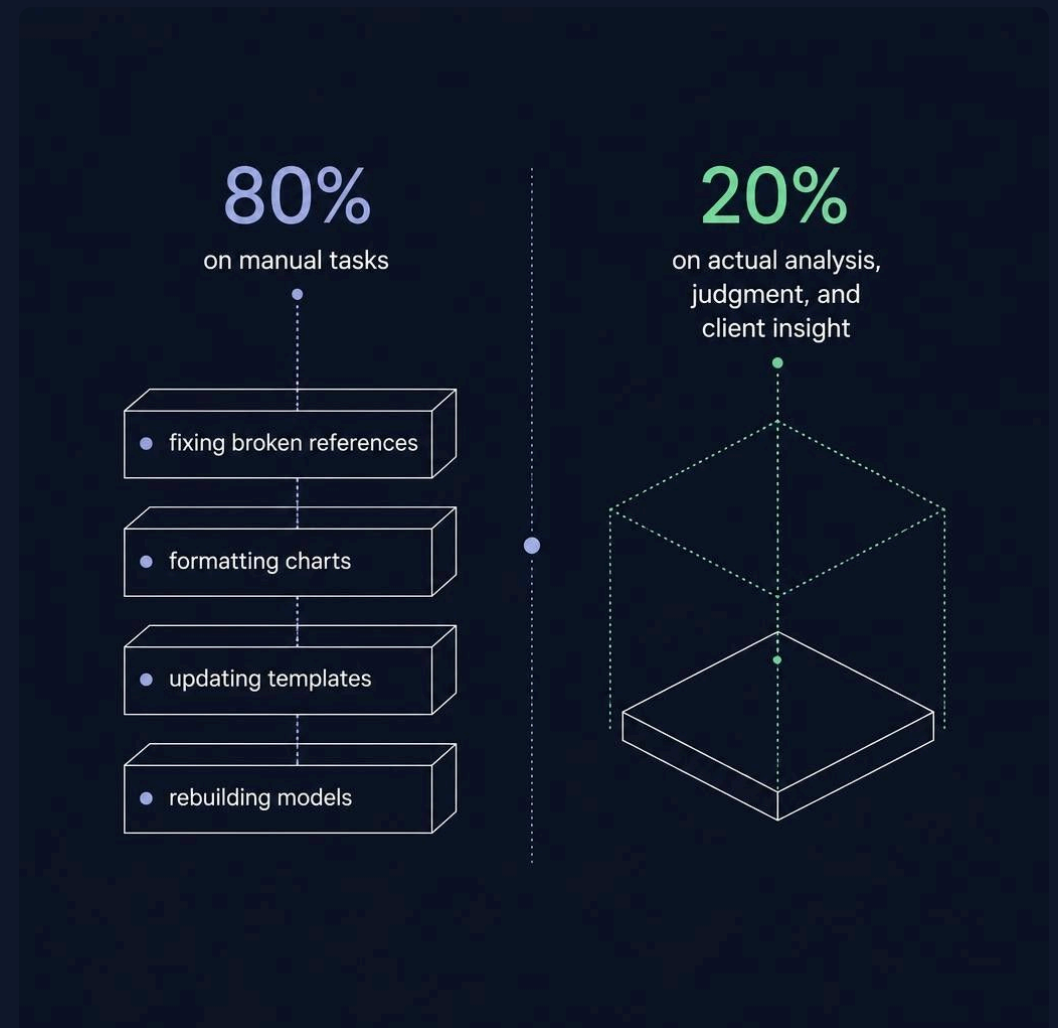

THE CORE PROBLEM

You Charge for the 20%. You Work the 80%.

Your clients pay for insight – your analysis, your judgment, your market knowledge. That's the final 20% of every project.

But you spend the other 80% wrestling with spreadsheets, formatting charts, and fixing broken models. The dirty secret? You're billing like an expert while working like a data entry clerk.

❏ This isn't a time management problem. It's a tooling problem.

THE HIDDEN COSTS

Four Time Sinks Killing Your Margins

Broken Circular References

Hours lost chasing formula errors that shouldn't exist in a professional model.

Manual PDF Formatting

Polishing charts and tables to look "bankable" – a task that adds zero analytical value.

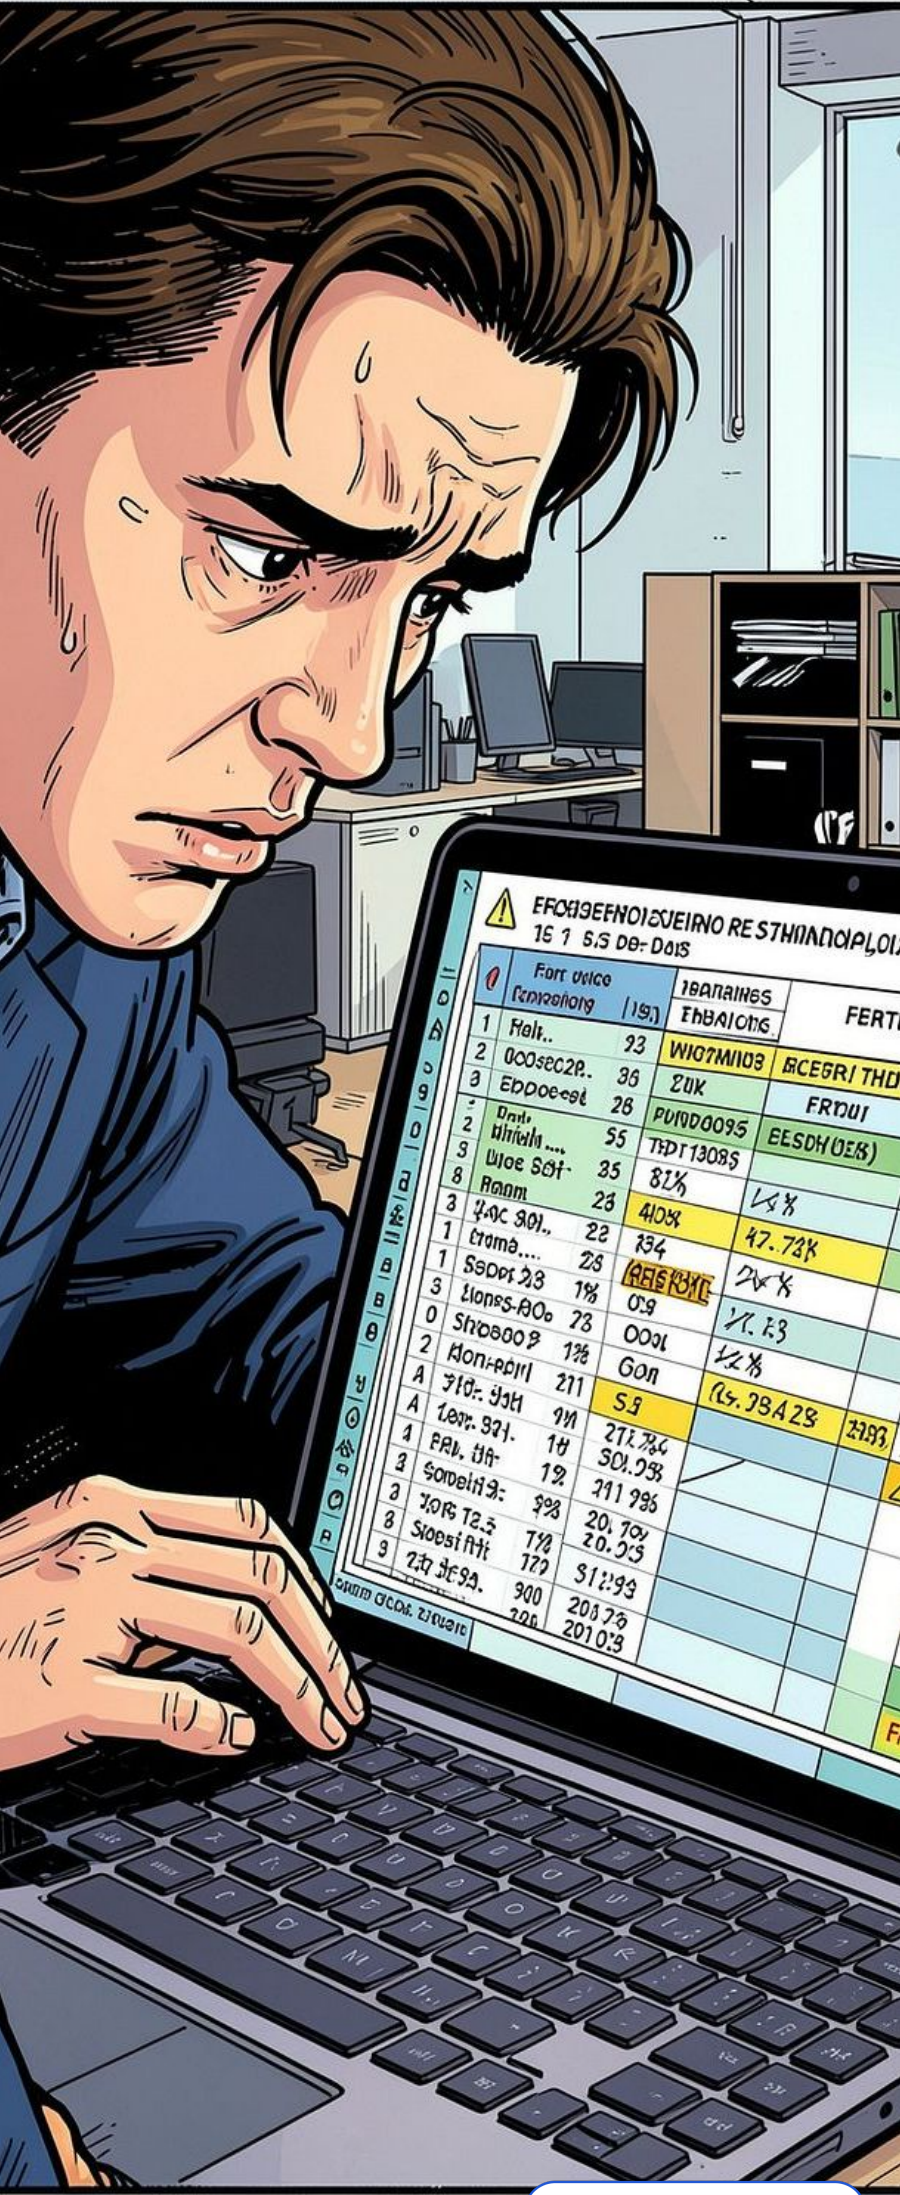

Jurisdiction Template Swaps

Rebuilding models every time a client switches from HDA to 10/90 to Escrow logic.

Client-Driven Rebuilds

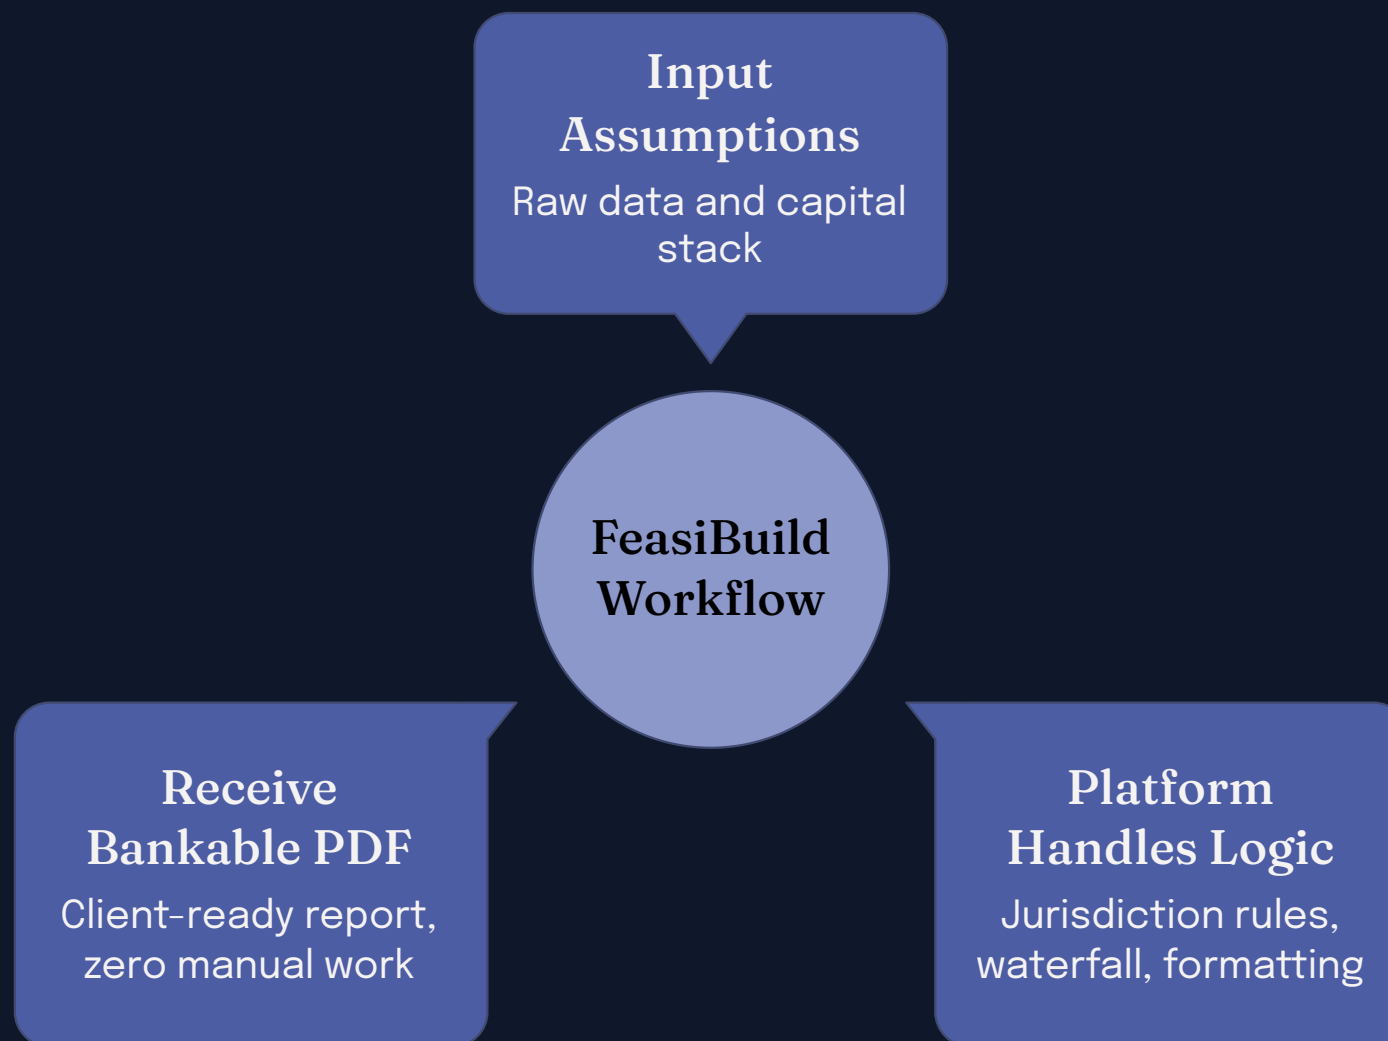

Starting over when the unit mix changes. Again.

THE SOLUTION

FeasiBuild: Built for the Workhorse

You input the raw assumptions and the capital stack. FeasiBuild handles everything else – jurisdiction logic, dynamic waterfall, and the bankable PDF. No more template hell.

What used to take a weekend now takes minutes. Your clients get faster turnaround. You get your life back.

Jurisdiction Logic — Baked In, Not Bolted On

Every project has its own regulatory framework. FeasiBuild knows the rules so you don't have to rebuild the model from scratch every time.

HDA Logic

Hotspot Development Area rules applied automatically.

10/90 Structures

Deposit and settlement timing modeled without manual adjustments.

Escrow Schedules

Release triggers and cash flow timing – handled natively.
